“ My Dear Anita, (instead of tia I used to call you for your first name) you will be always in my heart. There are so many beautiful memories we shared together However, my gratitude will be unforgettable as you were always there to give me a hand when I needed. You had a special way to show your love for other and for us. I will always remember you for your kindness which made me feel I was special person for you. Our merciful God called you and you are now en La Casa Grande where you now are a special Flower in the Garden of Heaven.

“ I will always remember my dear aunt, Anita as a happy person, she was always smiling and seemed to enjoy everything she did. She was also a very generous person who like to share what she had with others, especially her loved ones. Her hard work and intelligence led her to be a successful person while still very young. She and her husband loved each other immensely and they have been a great example to all f us. I shall always keep her very dearly in my heart.

“ When I think of my dear aunt, Anita, these are some of her attributes that come to my mind: caring, charming, intelligent, noble, lovely, generous and exemplary.

God needed another Angel in Heaven and He has called her to His arms.

Thank you, dear Anita for your love.
