“ Pulla Reddy Mavaya has known our family for so long that he and his family became family to us. He is such an amiable person that he can converse with anyone about anything no matter what their age is. In my family, Mavaya was friendly with four different generations; he was friendly with my great grandmother, my grandparents, my parents, and me. I always looked forward to talking to him about politics,global issues, and getting his advice on how to succeed in life. I will really miss you Mavaya.
