“Aunty you will always be missed. I know your are with my Mom right now and I miss her a lot too. You were the older sister who my Mom loved dearly. My first memories of Aunty was when I was about 10 years old and she took us in while we waited for our Ship to sail us back to Hawaii. She lived in a small apartment with Uncle and her 3 children. She was so nice and sweet to us even though there was 8 more people she had to add to her little apartment. I know that God built her and Uncle a place in heaven that week. Thank you for my Aunt Fannie. God Bless her family dear Jesus and keep them safe till we all are together with you.
