

Jacqueline Christine Stange

June 24, 1935 - September 3, 2017

Beloved wife to Arthur L. Stange. Beloved Mother to Dillon Jay Druen of Manteca, Deborah Pinks of Pine Grove, and Cindy Rich of Sacramento.

Jackie entered into eternal rest Sunday, September 3, 2017 peacefully, in her sleep. She loved to read her cooking magazines, and spent endless hours watching food network shows to try new recipes, that MOST wouldn't dream of touching. Her kitchen was where you could find her, pushing the limits of everyday recipes, or what most of us would never dream of trying. One day, French cuisine, the next day, out with the pasta making machine for Italian. Arts dinnertime words were, "what's this honey?"

She was a very social and silly woman, who captured our HEARTS, with her comedy and comments that would leave us with those real good belly aching laughs. Her sense of humor was different than anyone's, as she didn't know how funny she was just second nature.

She took on every day the same, an absolute joy to be in her presence, and for that reason we ALL wanted to be near her couldn't get enough of Jackie & her great personality.

Jacqueline is survived by her sibling Gloria Schulz, Tina Beare and she was preceded in death by her brothers Johnnie and Dicky Hamilton.

Grandchildren, Kelly Brenner, Robert Martinez, Ronnie Druen, Jason Rich, Joseph rich, Valerie Druen, Kevin Bobos, Amanda Druen, and Ricky Martinez. Jackie also left behind 20 Great Grandchildren. She was also a great step mother to her husband's children: Steve, Denny, Artie, Paul, Linda, & Julie.

“ *Mom, words cannot even explain how much I miss you. I miss laughing with you, your sarcasm, your wit and I miss helping you. I'd give anything to continue helping you for just 10 more minutes with you. My heart will never be the same without you. I love you so much....to infinity and beyond. Your daughter,
With tears and so much love....Debbie*
