

Karen Lee Berger

January 16, 1953 - November 25, 2017

Karen Lee Berger was born in San Francisco, California on January 16, 1953 to the parents of Jack and Virginia Wentz. She was raised in Fremont, California and attended John F Kennedy High School where she graduated in 1970. Marrying her high school sweetheart, Christian Berger, in 1972, they moved to San Jose, California and raised their family. Karen returned to Fremont in 1994, where she remained until her death on November 25, 2017.

She is predeceased by her oldest daughter, Amanda Sharronne Berger and survived by her 4 beautiful daughters, Christi Ann Tungate, Tanya Renee Morris, Monica Cerise Wyhs and Stacey Lee Berger.

Also survived by her 5 grandchildren that she loved dearly. Skyla Rose Morris, Zachary Willie Morris, Lilah Blue Tungate, Ethan Enrique Galarsa and Dylan Christian Kai Tungate.

She also leaves behind a brother, Jack David Wentz and 2 sisters, Catherine Long and Holly Hawes.

Battling the lifelong affliction of Neurofibromatosis, Karen was always a strong advocate for awareness and special needs children.

She will be greatly missed by her family, as well as the many people that she touched along the way. Karen was a person that would give you everything she had to help.
