

Loo Ching

September 20, 1945 - July 18, 2012

Beloved wife of Yan Yan Chew for 44 yrs. Devoted mother to son Clifton Chew, and daughter-in-law Debbie Yee, and daughter Denise Chew, and son-in-law Lyall Chun. Cherished grandmother of Darcy and Calvin Chew, and Owen and Brandon Chun. Also survived by brothers Hongwei Guo, Hong-Hsiang (Harry) Kuo, and sisters Mimi Tsou and Rae King.

Loo Loo was born in China and raised in Taiwan. Studied at National Taipei College of Nursing. Graduated with a B.S. in Nursing from Duquesne University in 1975. She was a dedicated nurse at Washington Hospital for 32 yrs.

Her passions were her family, work, travel and especially singing and performing.

A chapel service will be held on Saturday, July 28, 10am at Fremont Memorial Chapel, 3723 Peralta Blvd., Fremont, CA 94536. Burial will follow at Woodlawn Memorial Park in Colma, CA.

Tribute Wall

“ I had the pleasure of working with Loo Loo during my 10 years as a Case Manager at Washington Hospital. Her energy was very special. She had so much to offer and has left us much too soon. ”

Lynn Locher - July 24, 2012 at 12:00 AM