“ Man Mike,
What can I say brother? You were part of the crew. Always driving that White VW bug you cared so much about. You were so anal with that thing. If anyone got to touch it, it was a lucky day. It always smelled like fresh coconut and the beach in there. I know its been years, but really great friends don't skip a beat. You had a good heart. Always cared about others. I remember we went to the races one night- We were bored and went at 2:00 AM to see this thing... Hundreds of cars showed up and lined up for racing. We were in Tanner's old '78 Toyota Corolla. Of all the "real" race cars, we were the ones the cops pulled over that night. I remember we said we would give the officer Jorge Cabral if he let us go! So many memories that I will never forget. I will miss you. Lots of love
Ill see you on the other side brother.

“ Our hearts are broken with the loss of you, but you didn't go alone. A part of us went with you on the day God took you home. If tears could build a stairway & heartaches build a lane, we'd all walk up to heaven and bring you back again. In life you were loved so dearly, in death you are loved still. In our heart now you hold a place, and forever you always will.

Rest in Peace Michael.

“ I am so sorry for your loss, Michael was a wonderful kid who loved to play with my son and was often in my home as a child. My children and I are heartbroken that you are gone but you went to a better place. Please know that you were a good friend and loved by many. I know we will always remember you in our prayers. May god bless your family and friends and watch over them at this time. Thank you for being a great kid you will be missed....With Love Ronny, Vanessa and Dolores

Dolores Hutchison - June 03, 2015 at 08:27 PM

“ Shit I guess we've known each other for 25 or so years... Summer ski trips with each others families. I can hear your mom Rori and dad Dwayne yelling MICHAEL! You were always being a dare devil for something and scared the shit out of your mom from behind the boat. I remember your dad whipping us while tubing at Lake Don't Pedro. The houseboat trips with the whole neighborhood... Such fun times. Somehow Milt Blete started that one tie nail painted trend for men. It was like the boys club on the houseboat... Anyway, as we got older, the summer trips became less and catching you at Spankys in Castro Valley or another local bar was more common. Typically you were in Raiders gear talking shit about the opposing team... it all seems like a blur now... Not because I was drinking, but because I just can't imagine not bumping into you again... I'm so sad you are gone and my heart aches for your family... You will be missed my friend.
