

Priscilla Ann Whitaker

February 14, 1934 - November 1, 2017

Priscilla Whitaker was known for her vivacious personality, welcoming smile, passion for learning, beautiful poetry, and love of cats. Born in Kansas City, Missouri on Valentine's Day in 1934, Priscilla grew up in Kansas City and Fulton, New York before moving with her family to the Bay Area in 1951. Priscilla spent most of her life in Fremont where she settled with her husband, Lester, and worked alongside him in their family pharmacy business. Priscilla was a member of the Tri Cities Women's Club, the East Bay Scottish Association, and the Ohlone Chapter of the National Society Daughters of the American Revolution. Priscilla leaves a long and varied legacy of community volunteering. A lifelong learner herself, Priscilla volunteered 15 years as a Booklegger in Fremont schools introducing children to the magic of books and the beauty of poetry. She also presented animated talks on special topics of interest to seniors at local senior living facilities including Merrill Gardens and the Carlton, two senior living communities where she later lived. Always engaged in the moment, Priscilla remained active in community events throughout her life. She is survived by two daughters, D'Anna Sandor and Debra Running; a granddaughter, Natasha Sandor; a sister, Vicky Breed; a sister-in-law, Marilyn Whitaker; and her three stepsons, Scott Whitaker, Tod Whitaker, and Brian Whitaker; and two step grandchildren, Rachel Whitaker and Max Whitaker. She was preceded in death by her husband, Lester Scott Whitaker, Jr.; her mother and father, Jane and John "Mac" McLean; and a sister, Choice Richardson. Priscilla will be remembered as a thoughtful and prolific correspondent who was always ready to share an encouraging thought, a good joke, or an interesting fact. Priscilla will be missed by her family and her many friends who will continue to hold her in their hearts.
