“ My Avó was the most generous person I've ever encountered. I loved her so much. She was a second mother to me. My mom would go to work at 5:30am and when I would wake up, I'd head over to her house for breakfast every morning before school. After school, she would always have a snack for me to eat and watch my cartoons. We loved watching Woody Woodpecker and Tom & Jerry and Alvin & the Chipmunks together. She would sometimes pull out her camera and want me to pose with different items around the house. She taught me how to knit and crochet. I learned how to read Portuguese at her house. I loved helping her make bread or rosquilhas or espécie. I will miss her smile and her laugh but I will never forget them. Adoro-te Avó - Sua Borboleta
