“ I have just learnt from a mutual friend of Scott's passing. I can barely believe it. Looking back over my life I can honestly say Scott was one of the kindest most considerate men I have ever had the pleasure to know. He knew most of us at The Solid Rock & Cat House in Glasgow and we will always have fond memories of him. So glad he found a lovely wife and had a handsome wee boy. My very best to them and his extended family. Much love. Xx

“ Thinking of you all on this day.

Rest in peace. I hope your banging on a drum kit up there.

“ Have known Scott since he was 15. Met him at the Venue with the other Scotstoun boys. We all had some fun times there and then a few years later at the Murray's hoose, where there was always a party going on... Scott was a gem of a guy and will be sadly missed. My thoughts are with his wife and son and all his family and friends here in Scotland .

Euan and I are sitting here saying.....we shouldn't be doing this. We met you guys on our honeymoon wich led to many years of friendship, great times and laughter. You were one of the good guys that would do anything for anyone, you had an infectious laugh and were a pleasure to know. I can see you now jamming with Lemmy, Layne and Dimebag.....keep on rockin

We will always remember Scott as a genuine and fun guy to be around. Many good times shared. We will never forget him as he gave us so much to remember him by. Taken too young and too soon. Lesley & Stephen
