“ Thank you to everyone who came to sheila's service. Thank you to every single person who gave so much love and kindness to sheila and our family. Thank you to her women's group and all the wonderful, beautiful ladies who did so much to bring sheila's energy and spirit to life on that day. Thank you Fremont fellowship for having a meeting when you said you would and being a part of sheila's life and her recovery. Thank you for loving her as i know she loves each and every one of you. Thank you

“ how do i share my memories of Sheila? she was my big sister... yep. my big sister. she was my best friend and confidant. she was my girl sponsor in the program and she will always be my heart. sheila you are so missed here but we have so many ways to love and remember you. i am still trying to understand how it is that you are gone but i know god has you in his loving embrace and now you know true love without boundaries. i know how wonderful you are and i am touched to see that so many people knew you too. the lives you touch and the way its done can define a person and sheila you touched us all so sweetly, with so much thought and consideration put into all that you did. you were the only one who could call me stephen and not have it bother me. sheila, know that i love love love you.

“ I would like to express my condolences at this time to your family. The Bible is a great source of encouragement at times like this. A comforting thought is at Revelation 21:3,4, where it states "...And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry be anymore the former things have past away". This scripture gives us hope for the future! You can also find comfort in Acts 24:15 - Death does not end it all. May Jehovah bring you comfort and peace during this difficult time.

“ I am so sorry Ameila and Matthew and the rest of her family for your loss. She spoke highly of and with fondness for her two children who she lovingly referred to as Hammie and Mooty. Sheila was a dear friend of mine, we met through our recovery group and we instantly had a connection. She had a beautiful heart. I will always keep her in my heart and will miss her sweet and kind spirit. Fly free my beautiful friend, you are one of our angels. ??
