

Swaminathan Natarajan

June 11, 1943 - March 30, 2021

Few people get to spend a journey with a friendly, caring, loving and a selfless soul in their lifetime. Nandhini, Arul, Priya, myself and our kids (Sneha, Smitha and Mathu) had this great journey with our Dad, Swaminathan Natarajan for his lifetime here.

Born in a small village near Mayiladuthurai, with his close five siblings, Swaminathan was a caring, devoted son, brother husband, and grandfather, a renowned theatrical artist and an embodiment of positivity and love. He rejoiced simple things in life and appreciated everyone around him with his aura of happiness.

It's sudden, sorrowful and heart wrenching to not have you around us now, but you have left a legacy of love, warmth and happiness to everyone that you have touched their lives in one way or other.

Your smile, cheerful attitude, embracing everyone irrespective of their age and a true embodiment of "young at heart" will always be and remembered with all of us.

Until we meet again, it's a short bye from all of us.

Friends: Please join us to pay last respect to our Dad on Friday, April 2, 2021 from 10am to Noon, at Fremont Memorial Chapel, 3723 Peralta Boulevard,
