

Tara Housman

August 5, 1958 - June 12, 2018

Tara Housman left us Tuesday, June 12, 2018. She is survived by her husband of 11 years Kelly Zimmerman, sister Lucinda (Azi Bendavid), brother Damian Housman (Flora) and niece Jennifer. She is also survived by numerous loving family and friends.

Born in New York City in 1958. She graduated from the Florida State University. She made her way to San Francisco where she became a Taxi driver. She loved being in her cab and meeting new people. She loved the craziness of it all. She advocated on taxi worker issues both at city and state levels.

Her love of science fiction brought her to science fiction fandom where she met her husband and made numerous friends. She was an avid reader with a curious mind. Tara loved musical theater. She was also an avid collector of taxi memorabilia. Tara will be greatly missed.

“ I recall when Kelly first met Tara. Kelly had met her at BayCon, a sci-fi convention I had convinced Kelly to attend. So glad I had finally convinced Kelly to attend that convention. Those two were great for each other, making each other very happy. Tara was a gem, and I never, ever, saw her mad, though she did a great grumble on a few topics. Tara was a joy to be around. Tara was eloquent, caring, and she had a wonderful smile and easy laugh. I will miss Tara, and the joy she brought to Kelly, to my family and me, to so many people.
